Sleek, Slick and ever so Stylish - The Iman

Combining the sheerest of modern design aesthetics with a picturesque Balinese outlook of lush forests and leafy banana plantations, The Iman Villa is all about the wow factor. Built on gently sloping grassy terraces that mimic the surrounding rice fields, you will feel very much a part of the tropical scene, while enjoying it from a luxurious vantage point that offers every conceivable modern comfort. Cutting edge features to enhance your stay include Apple TV, massive plasma screen TVs and the sleekest of fittings.

Gleaming against a backdrop of sheer blue sky, the white stone buildings are reminiscent of the Mediterranean, while eco friendly flat 'green' roofs topped with plants and water features provide an eye catching and harmonious feature. A distinctive Indonesian flavour is also reflected in the intriguing collection of copper lamps, ethnic artefacts, wood carvings and antiques, handpicked by the owners and scattered throughout the villa.

The ultimate in designer villas, The Iman is also a hit with families. Kids will love the wading pool, plethora of floating toys, rooftop jacuzzi, snooker table and terraced lawns. There is even a pizza oven! When it comes to groups, the infinity edged pool and open-sided living area with decadent sunken lounge creates the social heart of the villa. A smaller lounge/ dining area with kitchen is also located in the two-bedroomed guest house, so options for privacy are ample.

Beautifully presented gourmet meals are served up by the villa's talented private chef, Kadet, who has a background in fine dining. Friendly and attentive butlers can also whip you up a signature drink or stock the wine fridge with your favourite tipple.

While the region of Pererenan is still sleepy, nearby Echo Beach is famed for its sunsets and seafood barbecues, while the neighbouring district of Batubolong has recently buzzed to life. Here you will find a trendy assortment of cafes, bars, spas and boutiques and beachfront restaurants.
